

eDiscovery Expertise Enables Faster Production for High-stakes Second Request

Company Profile

Telecommunications Corporation

Client Challenge

A large telecommunications corporation involved in a merger investigation needed document collection, processing, hosting, review and production services for a large-scale and high-stakes second request antitrust matter.

Matter Summary

A merger investigation that required a variety of services, in order to meet deadline for the large-scale and high-stakes second request antitrust matter.

Consilio Response

Working under a tight staffing and production deadline, Consilio immediately began collection and processing of the documents for review. In parallel, the project managers quickly staffed up with an initial 75-member high-quality review team who worked seamlessly in conjunction with two separate outside counsel law firms. Due to the volume of documents involved in second request matters, Consilio was asked to assign another 25 attorneys to meet production demand. The nearly 100 reviewers worked as a team to deftly and deliberately review the documents and meet the aggressive deadline.

Services Utilized

- Document Review
- Litigation Readiness

Results Achieved

Following the two-month review and Consilio's successful production of documents, the need for an additional quick-turnaround production required immediately bringing back 40 of the original team's review attorneys. This review team worked for seven straight days to ensure that all deadlines were successfully met on time and on budget.
